Targeted Role Tailoring

6 prompts in this section

- 1. Rewrite my resume to target a [JOB_TITLE] role at [COMPANY_NAME]. Here is the job description: [PASTE_JD]. right, here is my current resume: [PASTE_RESUME]. Mirror the JD's keywords naturally and reorder bullets so the most relevant experience appears first.
- 2. Analyze this job description [PASTE_JD] and extract the top 15 keywords, hard skills, and soft skills. Then show me exactly where to insert each one into my resume: [PASTE_RESUME].
- 3. I'm pivoting from [CURRENT_FIELD] to [TARGET_FIELD]. Rewrite my resume summary and top 5 bullets to position my transferable skills for a [TARGET_ROLE] hiring manager.
- 4. Compare my resume [PASTE_RESUME] against this JD [PASTE_JD] and give me a match score out of 100, a gap list, and 7 specific edits to raise the score above 85.
- 5. Rewrite my resume for a [SENIORITY_LEVEL] [JOB_TITLE] position. Adjust scope language, leadership signals, and metrics to match that level — not higher, not lower.
- 6. Take my generic resume [PASTE_RESUME] and produce 3 tailored versions: one for [ROLE_A], one for [ROLE_B], one for [ROLE_C]. Highlight what changed in each.

ATS Optimization

6 prompts in this section

- 1. Audit my resume [PASTE_RESUME] for ATS compatibility. Flag formatting, section headers, fonts, tables, columns, graphics, and keyword density issues. Return a fix list ranked by impact.
- 2. Compare my resume against this JD [PASTE_JD] and give me an ATS keyword match report: matched terms, missing critical terms, and exact phrasing to add.
- 3. Rewrite my resume in a clean, ATS-safe single-column plain-text format. Preserve all my achievements but strip anything that could break parsing.
- 4. List the exact section headers an ATS expects (Summary, Experience, Education, Skills, etc.) and rewrite mine [PASTE_RESUME] to use the standard names.
- 5. Identify keyword stuffing or unnatural phrasing in my resume [PASTE_RESUME] and rewrite the affected bullets so they read human but still hit the ATS terms.
- 6. Generate a Skills section optimized for ATS for a [JOB_TITLE] role. Group by Hard Skills, Tools, Certifications, and Soft Skills. Use the exact terminology recruiters search for.

Achievement Bullets

6 prompts in this section

- 1. Rewrite these flat job duties into achievement bullets with action verbs, scope, and quantified results: [PASTE_BULLETS]. Use the [Verb] + [Task] + [Metric] + [Impact] formula.
- 2. I don't have hard numbers for this role: [DESCRIBE_ROLE]. Help me estimate realistic metrics (% , $, time saved, volume) I can defend in an interview, then write 5 quantified bullets.
- 3. Turn this rambling paragraph about my work at [COMPANY] into 5 sharp, results-driven bullets under 2 lines each: [PASTE_PARAGRAPH].
- 4. Rewrite my bullets [PASTE_BULLETS] to lead with outcomes instead of tasks. Move the impact to the front of each line.
- 5. Give me 10 strong action verbs for a [JOB_TITLE] resume that are NOT 'managed,' 'responsible for,' or 'helped with.' Show one example bullet for each.
- 6. Review my bullets [PASTE_BULLETS] and remove every weak word: assisted, helped, worked on, responsible for. Replace with stronger ownership language.

Summary & Headline

6 prompts in this section

- 1. Write 3 versions of a professional summary for a [JOB_TITLE] with [X] years of experience in [INDUSTRY]. Versions: (1) bold and confident, (2) calm and senior, (3) results-led with numbers.
